

dance teacher

the academy of performing arts

Why Mr Chris Loves Teaching:

“Seeing the growth in my students is one of the biggest reasons I love teaching-- to see the art I create exhibited by my students is a huge blessing and to see their improvement just adds another. Teaching is an honor and being able to inspire everyone I teach through dance is also why I love teaching.”

Mr. Chris teaches Hip Hop at APA!

He began taking hip-hop classes in 2013. Mr. Chris took hip hop classes for about a year, before continuing his training at a dance company that he stayed with for about 2 years.

He furthered his dance education by taking various classes from numerous studios in Milwaukee, Madison, and Chicago.

Some opportunities he received from being part of Sole Matter Dance Company was performing at showcases, malls, and on Fox 6 News. While being a part of the Milwaukee Bucks 414 Crew, Mr. Chris was also able to perform at home games - with the added perk of getting to stay to watch the games and cheer on the Bucks!