

MISS EMILY

music teacher

the academy of performing arts

Why Miss Emily Loves Teaching:

“I love sharing my love for music with people and seeing how music can transform.

Miss Emily teaches violin, piano, and voice to students of all ages!

Miss Emily began her piano studies at the age of 4, viola at age 9, and voice beginning at 13 years old. She continued her education of all three instruments throughout high school and into college, earning a bachelor’s degree in music education at UW-Milwaukee.

Miss Emily has taught both private lessons and group classes for the past 15 years. She is currently an elementary orchestra director for Racine Unified School District and an accompanist for St. Mark’s Lutheran Church. Her extensive resume includes teaching both orchestra and general music at Franklin Public Schools, general music at Milwaukee Public Schools, choir and general music in the School District of South Milwaukee, and directing the Children’s Choir at Ascension Lutheran Church. She has also taught private music lessons at Brass Bell, Melk Music, and the Kenosha Conservatory, and accompanied the Second Presbyterian Church in Racine.