

MISS RACHEL

music teacher

Why Miss Rachel Loves Teaching:

“I love helping people find their own unique way of expressing themselves. ‘Where words fail, music speaks!’”

Ms. Rachel teaches all ages Voice, Glee, Beginner–intermediate Piano, and Drama at APA.

She is originally from Las Vegas, NV, and studied vocal performance and theatre at UNLV. She began singing in school choirs, and as the years progressed it grew to include plays and musicals, Jazz ensembles, madrigal ensembles, becoming a member of the international thespian society, Nevada state thespian society, and the president of the choir and theatre department at school.

Prior to moving to WI, she could be found singing/acting as a gondolier and member of the artiste Dell’Arte at the Venetian. Since moving, Moss Rachel has performed in bluegrass and gospel groups and has directed Christmas plays for Faith Baptist Church.

Her favorite styles of music to sing (and teach) are Musical theatre, Classical, Opera, Folk, Jazz, Disney, World music, liturgical, and CCM.
