

MISS EMILY

music teacher

the academy of performing arts

Why Miss Emily Loves Teaching:

“I love sharing my love for music with people and seeing how music can transform.

Miss Emily teaches piano, voice, violin, and viola to all ages at APA!

She is interested in several styles, including classical, musical theater, and liturgical. She studied Choral, General, and Instrumental Music Education at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. There she played viola in the UWM Symphony and sang in the UWM Women’s Chorus and Concert Chorale. After graduating with a BFA in Music Education, she went on to teach choir, general music, and orchestra.

While currently a string teacher for Racine Unified School District, Miss Emily also accompanies the choir and church services at St. Mark’s Lutheran Church in Cudahy on piano and organ.

Miss Emily lives with her husband and two cats. When she is not teaching or making music, she enjoys taking walks, playing video games, reading, and creative writing.
