

MISS JAMIE

dance teacher

Why Miss Jamie Loves Teaching:

“I love teaching to see the growth of my students in class. To see my students enjoy class and find happiness through their dancing is so rewarding for me.”

Miss Jamie currently teaches ages 2-14 in Pre-Ballet, Ballet, Lyrical, Contemporary, Tap, and Jazz at APA!

She started taking lessons at the age of 4 at Center Stage Dance Academy of Poynette, WI. She danced on CSDA's Competition Team from the age of 14 to when she graduated high school.

Miss Jamie is currently studying to obtain her BFA in Contemporary Dance Performance and Choreography at UW-Milwaukee and has danced in the UWM Dance Department's New Dancemakers, Winterdances, Springdances, and Dance Collective Performances.

Throughout high school, Miss Jamie was an assistant teacher at CSDA. Upon moving to Milwaukee, she taught Recreational Dance for Milwaukee Recreation before coming to teach at APA in 2021!
