

MR CHANDLER

music teacher

Why Mr Chandler Loves Teaching:

“I love to teach because I can help students find happiness through learning and performing music.”

Mr. Chandler specializes in classical and acoustic guitar instruction for all age groups and skill levels at APA! He is extremely passionate about pedagogical approaches to guitar instruction and hopes each student can find a sense of joy and satisfaction when playing the guitar.

Born in New York City, Mr. Chandler studied classical guitar at Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School, also known as the “Fame School.” Mr. Chandler recently graduated from Northwestern University with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a Bachelor of Music in Classical Guitar Performance. He is continuing his studies as a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee under the guidance of Cuban guitar virtuoso René Izquierdo.

When Mr. Chandler is not teaching, he loves to watch Star Wars and go on long walks!
