

MISS CHRISTINA

music teacher

Why Miss Christina Loves Teaching:

“I love seeing students fall in love with music. I love building their confidence and witnessing their creativity.”

Miss Christina teaches all levels of voice, and beginner piano to students of all ages at APA!

She started singing when she was 12 years old and began taking private voice lessons in her freshman year of high school. Miss Christina graduated with a bachelor's degree in Vocal Performance and Communication, and a certificate in Digital and Media Literacy. She also has participated in Opera Workshop and had lead roles in three operas. She has performed in many musicals, including Little Women and Guys and Dolls, and has helped direct vocalists in musicals such as Schoolhouse Rock and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

When she's not working, Miss Christina loves to spend time with her family and friends. She enjoys going to concerts and traveling to new and exciting places! Christina continues to sing and work on her skills as a musician by practicing new instruments. Currently, she is working on learning guitar!
