

MISS LISA

music teacher

Miss. Lisa teaches voice and piano at APA! She specializes in teaching classical and musical theater vocal styles, having coached students for college and honors auditions, state contests, and pageants. She emphasizes technique, and music literacy within lessons to empower her students as confident and expressive musicians.

Miss Lisa currently sings as a soprano with the Master Singers of Milwaukee. She is also the music director for Trinity Lutheran Church, where she leads the choir, bell ensemble, and praise band. She has been singing in choirs, performing in musicals, and playing in ensembles of all styles since she was 10 years old. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Vocal Music from North Central College as well as a Masters of Music in Education as well as World Music Studies from Northern Illinois University.
