

MISS RACHEL

music teacher

Why Miss Rachel Loves Teaching:

“I love teaching music because it is rewarding. I have also learned from my students just as much as they have learned from me.”

Miss Rachel teaches beginner to intermediate violin to students of all ages; she also teaches beginner viola and cello! Miss Rachel uses the traditional method to teach strings but tailors each lesson based on the needs and interests of each student.

Miss Rachel began her violin education at the age of five and continued lessons, along with viola and cello lessons, throughout high school. Miss Rachel studied at the Yamaha School of Music and studied in the Philippines with Melissa Exmundo & Gilopez Kabayao. She then attended Hyles-Anderson College for two years where she studied both Music and Elementary Education.

Miss Rachel has taught violin since 2004, and started teaching at APA in 2019; she also teaches music at Badger State Baptist School.

When she's not working, Miss Rachel loves spending time with her family. She also enjoys reading, shopping, and traveling.
