

MISS TIFFANY

Music Director

the academy of performing arts

Why Miss Tiffany Loves Teaching:

“I love seeing students experience the many joys and benefits of a music education. There is nothing like witnessing a student having fun while learning and progressing in their education.”

Miss Tiffany is APA’s Music Director. She teaches piano, voice, and Glee to students of all ages and levels!

Miss Tiffany began taking piano and voice lessons in high school and continued her training in college. She has been involved in chorus throughout her education, including performing as a member of UW-Milwaukee’s Concert Chorale and Women’s Chorus. She has performed at various festivals and venues including The West Side Club in Madison and The Heidel House in Green Lake.

Tiffany obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Music Education – Choral and General from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and a Certificate in Women’s Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

When she’s not teaching at APA, Miss Tiffany enjoys traveling to new destinations with her husband.
