

MISS MORGHAN

dance teacher

Why Miss Morghan Loves Teaching:

"I love to watch dance help my students blossom into their most confident and truest selves!"

Miss Morghan teaches acro, ballet, jazz, lyrical, and tap to students of all ages!

Originally from Indiana, she began dancing at a young age. She trained at two studios, taking classes in multiple styles of dance. She was a competition dancer for 6 years and also pursued pre-professional ballet training at an Indiana conservatory. Throughout her training she was able to travel around the Midwest to dance competitions, conventions, and workshops.

Miss Morghan started teaching in 2014. She fell in love with the process of sharing her knowledge and watching her students reach their full potential as dancers and people. She has attended conventions and trainings throughout the country and currently holds a certification to teach acro through Acrobatic Arts.

When she isn't teaching, Morghan enjoys curling up with her cat and a good book or enjoying time outdoors.
