

dance teacher

Why Miss Danielle Loves Teaching:

"I love to see kids improve daily and grow in mind, body and spirit!"

Miss Danielle teaches tap, jazz, lyrical, ballet to students of all ages! She also works with competitive program dancers.

Miss Danielle began dancing as soon as she could walk. She spent 2 years at Chapman University in Orange, California, and graduated with a BFA in Dance Performance from UNLV as well as a minor in Communications. More recently Danielle has choreographed almost a dozen shows for St. Thomas More High School, including Footloose and The Drowsy Chaperone.

Besides her passion for a strong technical background, Danielle's past work as a fitness and personal trainer and yoga instructor has led her to encourage her dancers to have a strong sense of their body and an understanding of anatomy. Danielle is an avid Los Angeles Lakers fan. She loves cats and hates chocolate.