Miss Rhea teaches recreational dance classes to students of all ages at APA!

Miss Rhea's love for dance began at the age of three. She has been dancing on and off since then. She started with traditional training in Ballet, Tap, and Jazz in Southeast Wisconsin. After a quick break she found her passion for dance again while participating in the college dance team "Hype UW-Milwaukee." During this time she also studied dance within the Peck School of the Arts at the University. Since then Rhea has been dancing professionally at events throughout the city of Milwaukee including Summerfest, PrideFest, MKE Night Market and more. She has also danced for several local teams including the Milwaukee Bucks 414 Crew and competed in LA at the World of Dance Nationals Competition.

Outside of dance Rhea is a Broadcast Journalist and Radio Producer.
