

MISS RUTA

music teacher

Why Miss Ruta Loves Teaching:

“I love to teach music because when children learn music, they excel at academics.”

Miss Ruta is a passionate piano instructor at APA, guiding students of all ages to unlock their musical potential. While she loves classical music, her interests span a vibrant range of genres—from pop and musical theatre to folk, Disney tunes, liturgical pieces, and the energetic spirit of Broadway.

Hailing from New York, Miss Ruta pursued a degree in piano performance at Cleveland State University in Ohio. Her career has included directing the church choir at Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church in Hendersonville, TN, and teaching piano for Baldwin Pianos. After dedicating time to raising her family, she joyfully returns to her true love: the piano. Currently, she accompanies the high school choir at Carmen Schools of Science & Technology Southeast campus, along with solo singers.

Outside the studio, Miss Ruta is an avid reader and a lover of travel, and she cherishes time spent with her children and grandchildren.
