

MR JESUS

Music teacher

Why Mr. Jesus Loves Teaching:

“I love teaching because I am constantly inspired by the growth and passion of students.”

With a passion for helping musicians shine, Mr. Jesus teaches Voice and Beginner–Intermediate Piano to students ages 4 and up at APA. Known for his upbeat energy and supportive teaching style, he makes lessons fun while building strong technique and confidence.

A truly versatile musician, Mr. Jesus teaches and performs in a wide range of styles—pop, rock, jazz, R&B, folk, classical/opera, musical theatre, and Disney favorites. He also specializes in Spanish-language music, from traditional genres like mariachi to modern Latin styles.

Born in Wisconsin, Mr. Jesus earned his BFA in Versatile Voice from UW–Milwaukee. His musical journey began early, singing Gospel and Mariachi as a child, and grew into a professional career that has included musicals, plays, operas, and choral performances across the region.

Outside the studio, you’ll find him reading, songwriting, cooking, or spending time with family and friends.
