Why Miss Stephanie Loves Teaching:

“Miss Stephanie loves watching students grow from their very first read-through to shining confidently on stage. One of her favorite parts of teaching is seeing kids discover their own voice, build confidence, and surprise themselves with their creativity along the way.”

At APA, Miss Stephanie teaches Theatre and enjoys working in all aspects of the art form—from acting and singing to stage management.

She has been involved in several APA productions, including Annie Jr., The Addams Family, Shrek Jr., and Dare to Dream Jr., and is excited to be part of Matilda Jr. this summer.

Miss Stephanie studied Theatre and Music at Wisconsin Lutheran College, where she focused on acting, directing, and classical/operatic vocals. Her performance experience began in grade school and includes plays, vocal choirs, handbell choirs, band, piano, and voice lessons. She also served as a vocalist and director for her church’s praise band.

When she’s not at the studio, Miss Stephanie enjoys spending time with her family and cats, sipping coffee, and embracing all things spooky!
