

MR ANTHONY

Music teacher

Why Mr Anthony Loves Teaching:

“Teaching is a very important way to give back to our communities. It’s one thing to say the youth are our future, but to really involve yourself in nurturing them in everyday life is something much larger than oneself. I love teaching music specifically because it is an incredibly important part of the human experience, and life as a whole. It connects all of humanity across different cultures and time periods.”

Mr Anthony teaches voice and piano at APA and loves helping students build confidence, develop strong musical foundations, and discover the joy of making music. Whether students are just beginning their musical journey or looking to grow their skills, Mr Anthony creates a supportive, encouraging environment where every student can thrive.

Mr Anthony earned his Bachelor of Fine Arts in Versatile Voice, where he studied a wide range of vocal styles, including classical, musical theatre, and contemporary commercial music (CCM). His diverse musical background also allows him to guide piano students as they develop essential technique, musicianship, and a lifelong love of music.

As an active performer, Mr Anthony has sung with acclaimed ensembles including the Milwaukee Symphony Chorus, Bel Canto Chorus, Aperi Animam, and Milwaukee Chamber Choir. His ongoing performance experience brings energy, creativity, and real-world musical insight into every lesson.

Outside of teaching and performing, Mr Anthony enjoys hiking with friends, skipping rocks, reading, and learning bass guitar to expand his own musical skills. He believes learning never stops and loves inspiring his students to grow alongside him. Mr Anthony is excited to share his passion for music with every student and help them achieve their unique musical goals.
