

Theatre teacher

Why Mr Mac Loves Teaching:

“Through acting, we learn more about others and even more about ourselves.”

Mr. Mac teaches Drama and Musical Theatre at APA!

Mr. Mac grew up in Oak Creek and studied dance, voice, and theatre at APA from ages 2 to 18. He has enjoyed performing in, producing, and directing plays and musicals for the past several years.

Mr. Mac is currently receiving a math- and problem-solving- focused education degree from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, where he enjoys participating in the marching band and the university's men's choir, “The Singing Statesmen”.

When not teaching, Mr. Mac enjoys playing the saxophone and clarinet and solving puzzles like Sudoku.
